Political Science (POL) - Graduate Courses

Courses

POL 498/598 Cr.2-3

Honors/Graduate Research in Politics and Government
Directed honors or graduate research conducted as part of an approved project in political science and/or public administration. This course is taught largely at an undergraduate level. Graduate students will have additional course requirements/expectations. Offered Fall, Spring.