

Business Administration - Undergraduate Program

Overview

The business administration minor is available to any student outside the College of Business Administration. It provides students the ability to explore the broad knowledge of the functional aspects of business and organizations. Students will develop practical, managerial, and business decision-making skills by exposing them to a variety of "core subjects" like accounting, economics, management, and marketing.

Students must submit an electronic application for this minor from the College of Business Administration website (<https://www.uwlax.edu/cba/resources-for-students/business-administration-minor/>).
