Marketing offers challenges, stimulating problems, working with people and unlimited advancement opportunities. The variety and number of career and job opportunities available to you upon graduation is impressive.

According to the Occupational Outlook Handbook, employment of advertising, marketing, promotions, public relations and sales managers is expected to increase through 2018. "Job growth will be spurred by competition for a growing number of goods and services, both foreign and domestic, and the need to make one's product or service stand out." In addition, as the influence of social media, the Internet and advertising via wireless devices changes the promotional landscape, marketing professionals will need to develop new and innovative ways to advertise and promote products and services to better reach desired market segments.

Positions in marketing provide excellent training because of the knowledge of products and consumers gained in these jobs. Due to their importance and high visibility, managers in marketing positions often are prime candidates for advancement to the highest levels in an organization.

2 Occupational Outlook Handbook, 2010-2011

Students in the College of Business Administration must be admitted to business (http://catalog.uwlax.edu/undergraduate/businessadministrationciba/#Admission) and also complete the college core requirements.

Principles of Marketing
An introduction to the study of marketing in business and other organizations. Topics include: the marketing environment, marketing strategies and decision-making, marketing ethics and the international dimension of marketing strategy. Prerequisite: ECO 110; business minor or a major with a business concentration and junior standing, or admission to business. Offered Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer.

MGT/MKT 310 Cr.3
Principles of Sustainable Business
This course lays a foundation on the relationships between social, environmental and business systems. Challenges to existing business theory will embrace a new ecological perspective of business that includes an introduction to complexity theory, systems thinking, evolutionary economics and biomimicry. The specific topics of the triple-bottom-line, full-cost accounting, green marketing, human rights and social equity are explored within the context of local and global ecosystems and a broadened mission for "sustainable" business in the 21st century. Prerequisite: admission to business. (Cross-listed with MGT/MKT; may only earn credit in one department.) Offered Fall.

FIN/MGT/MKT 323 Cr.3
Integrated Core Business Consulting and Professional Communication
In this course, students will build knowledge and skills needed to integrate and apply material across the functional areas of business to solve complex business problems. Knowledge areas and skill sets that are specifically targeted include decision making and critical thinking, communication, teamwork, and time management. Students develop in these areas while building a foundation in effective business consulting. Students will work in teams to complete applied business consulting projects, while also engaging in smaller written assignments and exercises throughout the course. Prerequisite: admission to business. Students must take this course concurrently with integrated core sections of MGT 308, MKT 309, and FIN 355. Students may not earn credit in more than one of the following: MGT 323, MKT 323, FIN 323, or MGT 301. Consent of instructor. Offered Fall.

College of Business Administration Internship
The internship program as conceived and implemented is an unusual program designed to provide an opportunity for students in the College of Business Administration at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse to participate in an approved program with a cooperating business, governmental, or civic organization for usually 15 weeks of their undergraduate work. For additional information, see internship description under the College of Business Administration heading. Repeatable for credit. Prerequisite: ACC 221, ACC 222; BLAW 205; ECO 110, ECO 120, ECO 230; FIN 355; IS 220; MGT 308; MKT 309; admission to business. Pass/Fail grading. Offered Fall, Winter, Spring, Summer.

MKT 465 Cr.3
Digital Marketing and Analytics
This course offers a hands-on, application-based approach to the use of digital channels as marketing tools. The course explores how marketers use digital media, such as websites, blogs, social media platforms, and email for marketing communication purposes. Topics covered include search engine optimization, website design, content strategy, social media marketing, campaign management and evaluation, advertising, and digital marketing metrics and analysis. Prerequisite: MKT 309; MKT 365 or concurrent enrollment; admission to business. Offered Fall, Summer.
MKT 467 Cr.3
Marketing Analytics
This course covers the marketing analytics field from a broad and applied perspective, allowing students to practice utilizing marketing analytics from a "consumer of insights" point of view. The focus is on understanding the results from analytics; managing analytical projects successfully; and communicating insights for business impact. The course will not focus on coding. The types of data managers and executives are most likely to encounter, including Big Data, will be examined. The most commonly applied multivariate analytical approaches (such as regression, cluster analysis, multidimensional scaling, etc.), including a few new and emerging areas such as social data analysis, text analytics, and neural nets will be explained using simple step-by-step examples, with a heavy focus on business application. Students will practice solving real business problems by selecting and applying the right data and the best analytics. Prerequisite: MKT 309; one of the following: ECO 307, IS 300, MGT 402, or MKT 367; admission to business. Offered Spring.

MKT 479 Cr.3

Prerequisite: MKT 341; MKT 362, MKT 367; to be taken in the student's semester of graduation; admission to business. Offered Fall, Spring.

MGT/MKT 480 Cr.3
Business Sustainability Capstone
This capstone course will act as a culmination of the sustainability minor in business. By the time students complete this last course in the minor, they will have developed not only a deep exposure to the "content" of sustainable business, but also a great deal of firsthand experience with the very tools and procedures that breathe factual "life" into that content, including the triple-bottom-line, full-cost accounting, externalities, and ecological footprint audits. Speakers from and field trips to businesses engaging in sustainability practices will also be a part of this course. Prerequisite: MGT/MKT 310; MGT 408; and six additional credits applicable to the sustainable business minor. Open only to minors in sustainable business. (Cross-listed with MGT/MKT; may only earn credit in one department.) Offered Spring.
