

Outdoor and Rec Management Minor to M.S. in Recreation Management Pathway for Rec Therapy Majors

- All majors may only pursue one REC minor-to-master's pathway. Only recreational therapy majors may select the outdoor and recreation management minor-to-master's pathway for recreational therapy majors.
- Students completing the outdoor and recreation management minor-to-master's pathway for recreational therapy majors may also complete the tourism and event management minor; however, 12 unique credits of coursework are required for each minor.

The Outdoor and Recreation Management Minor to Master of Science in Recreation Management Pathway for Recreational Therapy Majors provides students the opportunity to earn graduate credit for up to nine credits. These nine graduate credits will count towards both the outdoor and recreation management minor and the Recreation Management Graduate Program.
